- 6.9 In exceptional circumstances, a relaxation to article 6.8 may be granted by the "committee" on application to the committee by prospective new members, or existing members.

The following guidelines are listed to assist both those seeking such a relaxation to article 6.8, and incumbent committee members considering such applications –

- 1. Dual playing memberships will only be considered for those working and/or living away from the area of the club, who can demonstrate* that they are unable to make normal usage of the clubs facilities, nor fulfil match tie commitments. Such members must always stipulate OKBC as their “mother club” for the purposes playing in any local or national association competitions.

2. Dual playing memberships will never be considered for those seeking membership of another club within the clubs own Bowls Scotland District, and, unless there are exceptional circumstances, to any other club within adjacent and nearby Bowls Scotland Districts.
3. Dual “non playing” membership may be considered for any other club, including those defined in article 6.9.2, so long as such membership is as a result of a “Honorarium” bestowed upon an applicant whilst a member of another club. In such circumstances the applicant must not take part in any of the “other clubs” internal competitions, nor take an active part in any of the “other clubs” business.

7. Disciplinary Procedures

- 7.1 Any Member rendering them self, in the opinion of the Council, objectionable to other members may be disciplined by the Council.
 - 7.1.1 The Council shall, at their discretion, have the power, on behalf of the club, to hand down disciplinary measures to such “objectionable member” as they consider appropriate.
 - 7.1.2 Such measures may range, inter alia, from censure, to suspension for a defined period of time, to expulsion from the club.
 - 7.1.3 Any disciplinary measures handed down to an “objectionable member” must have the minimum vote of two thirds of the members attending the Council meeting reviewing such matters.
 - 7.1.4 Such “Objectionable Member” may within eight days of this decision being intimated to them by letter, lodge an appeal in writing, with the Secretary, who shall call a Special General Meeting of the Club to dispose of the matter.
 - 7.1.5 All Full Members will be invited to attend such a Special General Meeting where at the details of the complaint and the disciplinary measure handed down to the “objectionable member” will be read out.
 - 7.1.6 The disciplinary measures handed down to an “objectionable member” may only be over –turned by the minimum vote of two thirds of the members attending the Special General Meeting reviewing such matters.
- 7.2 In the event of a Member failing to pay their Annual Subscription within fourteen days after the Annual General Meeting for the forthcoming season, the Treasurer shall report them to the Council and if the amount is not paid forthwith, the Council may strike off such a member from membership of the Club but such member shall remain liable for the subscription due by them.

- 22.1 Whatever the nationality, residence or domicile of any member or visitor to the Old Kilpatrick Bowling Club, the Law of Scotland shall be the applicable law in the case of any disputes or proceedings.

BYE-LAWS

B.0 Generally

B.0.1 The Council shall have the power to make or annul Bye-Laws, provided any decision is not inconsistent with the Constitution of The Old Kilpatrick Bowling Club, and these decisions shall remain in force until reviewed by a General Meeting.

B.1 Competitions

B.1.1 Club internal competitions shall be organised, primarily on a gender basis, but will also include “mixed gender” competitions, all generally in line with, but not limited to, the “National Competitions” organised by the clubs governing body, Bowls Scotland.

B.1.2 Gents competitions shall only be open to those “gentlemen members” holding “Full Membership”, as defined in article 4.1.

B.2 Competition Entry

B.2.1 Competition Entry Sheets for the forthcoming season shall be posted, by the Match Committee, on the Club Notice Board(s) reserved for the Match Committee business, by no later than the date set for the Annual General Meeting.

B.2.2 Competition Entry Sheets must be completed by members by no later than 31st March for the forthcoming season, or such other date as may have been approved by the Council and stipulated on the Competition Entry Sheets posted on the Club Notice Boards(s).

B.2.3 The “Gents” Championship, Presidents and Handicap Competitions to be drawn and on display on the Club Notice Board(s) reserved for the Match Committee business for Opening Day.

B.2.4 Remaining Competitions to be drawn and on display on the Club Notice Board(s) reserved for the Match Committee business as the season progresses.

B.3 Club Competition Ties

B.3.1 The Match Committee shall provide and maintain a Competition Match Ties Engagement Book(s) in a space reserved within the Clubhouse Locker Room.

B.3.2 The first named player in each draw shall be the Challenger and shall arrange personally or by electronic message the day and the hours at which the tie shall be played and shall record this in the Engagement Book.

“The day and the hours” at which a tie may be played shall be governed by the membership category held by those arranging the tie and shall ultimately be limited to “the day and the hours” of green use permitted to the person in the tie holding the “lesser” club membership status as set out in Article 4.

B.3.3 In the event that no contact can be made by the Challenger with their Opponent then the Challenge Sheet for the competition may be used. The Challenger must insert the name of their opponent together with three dates and times in the challenge sheet, only one of which may be within the last three days for finishing the round, which information must be endorsed by the signature of a member of the Match Committee, or appointed “ad hoc match sub-committee” for the specific competition.

These dates must also be entered in the Engagement Book and marked as “Provisional”. ( “Times” proposed for weekday Ties must be 6.30pm, unless otherwise agreed with the Match Committee, or appointed “ad hoc match sub-committee” for the specific competition).

B.3.4 If a player fails to keep an appointment, according to the Engagement Book, they shall forfeit the tie.

B.3.5 If both players fail to keep an appointment, according to the Engagement Book, both names shall be deleted from the competition.

B.3.6 Ties cannot be arranged for Wednesday evenings or Saturday evenings, unless the Match Committee approve otherwise.

B.3.7 Club Competition Ties cannot occupy more than four rinks at any time, unless the Match Committee approve otherwise.

B.3.8 Ties not on the green and ready to play within fifteen minutes of the allotted start time shall forfeit their place and go to the end of the list waiting to play at the “allotted start time”.

B.3.9 On weekday nights, if rinks are not played on by 7.00pm then all available rinks can be used for ties.

B.4. Junior Competitions

B.4.1 The Junior Competitions shall be supervised by Members appointed by the Council.

B.4.2 The said members in article 18.1 shall be responsible for organising the Junior Section and for administering internal and external competitions and matches.

B.4.3 The days and times when the green is available for “Junior Competition” and “Junior practice” play shall be set by the Council and posted on the Club Notice Boards reserved for the Match Committee information.

- B.4.4 Other times during which Junior Competitions shall be permitted to play will be at the discretion of the Council.
- B.4.5 Junior Members shall not be permitted to use the lounge or play the gaming machines. No card games and no gambling will be allowed.
- B.4.6 Junior Members will not be allowed to bring visitors to the Club.
- B.4.7 Misbehaviour by Junior Members will be dealt with by the Council in accordance with article 7.
- B.4.8 No Junior Member will be called to attend a Council meeting reviewing any misbehaviour claim without being accompanied by either a member of the Junior Organising Committee and/or a Parent or Guardian.
- B.4.9 All Club Etiquette Rules and ruling body rules will apply to Junior Members.

B.5 GENTS PROMISCUOUS GAME

- B.5.1 A GENTS PROMISCUOUS GAME shall be held on a Wednesday commencing 6.30pm until otherwise notified. The games shall comprise 17 ends, or as advised by the Match Committee on the night. Entry shall only be available to those gentlemen who are Full Members
- B.5.2 In the event of more Members, as defined in B.5.1, being present at the draw than the set rinks can accommodate, all Members will ballot for play. Any Members not successful in the ballot will be eligible to play on all the following Wednesdays, without further ballot.

B.6 Members Weekend Bounce Games

- B.6.1 AFTERNOONS -When there are no Club fixtures, nor match ties, play will begin at 2.30pm. Day Members and Members Guests will be allowed full participation in games at this time.

In the event of more Members and Day Members and Members Guests being present at the draw than the set rinks can accommodate, preference will be given to Members and Day Members. Members Guests will ballot to fill any remaining numbers required.

In the event that a ballot of Members and Day Members is necessary, then Members Friends will not be eligible to play in these instances. Any individual not successful in the ballot will be eligible to play on all the following weekends without further ballot, subject to the aforementioned order of preference.

Any rink starting short will be made up of late-comers, up to and including the second end.

- B.6.2 SATURDAY EVENINGS - When there are no Club fixtures, nor match ties, play will begin at 6.30pm.

Day Members and Members Guests will be allowed full participation in games at this time.

In the event of more Members and Day Members and Members Guests being present at the draw than the set rinks can accommodate, preference will be given to Members and Day Members.

Members Guests will ballot to fill any remaining numbers required. In the event that a ballot of Members and Day Members is necessary, then Members Friends will not be eligible to play in these instances.

Any individual not successful in the ballot will be eligible to play on all the following weekends without further ballot, subject to the aforementioned order of preference.

Any rink starting short will be made up of late-comers, up to and including the second end.

B.7 Bounce Game

B.7.1 Any Member who wishes a rink for a bounce game should, in the first instance, agree a suitable day and time with the Match Convenor, and thereafter apply to one of the Clubs Officials for permission.

If permission is granted by the one of the Clubs Officials then the Bounce Game should be entered into the match and Ties Book with the members name, and labelled as a "Bounce Game".

B.8 Friendly Fixtures

B.8.1 Friendly fixtures will generally be organised and arranged on a "gender" basis, unless otherwise notified by the match Committee.

B.8.2 When picked as a reserve in a friendly fixture, and provided your name is entered for the next game, you become an automatic choice for same.

B.9 Appropriate Dress

B.9.1 On Green

1. Members representing the club in any representative matches shall ensure that their "dress" is in accordance with the rules of the appropriate controlling body.

2. Members taking part in fixtures listed in the clubs Syllabus shall ensure that their "dress" is in accordance with the prevailing rules of the club.

3. Members taking part in club match ties, promiscuous games or bounce games may "dress" in a smart but casual manner which can include the wearing of dress shorts which must be no shorter than "knee length".

B.9.2 Within Club Premises

1. Members are expected to present themselves to the club in an orderly manner.
2. The wearing of football strips and/or scarves within or on the Clubs premises shall not be permitted.
